August 2019

Next Meeting: August 20th, 6:30 – 8:00 PM

Karp Room, San Leandro Library

Dahlia folk,

We will have an exciting meeting this coming Tues. night. There will be explanation of our clerk's activities at our shows and a chance for all of us to try our triple bloom talents. This is for all members and Curtis wants to give away his hard earned cash to the best triple bloom entry.

Coming with this newsletter will be blank entry cards that you must fill out when you put your dahlia exhibits on the tables. One of the requirements on this form is your exhibitor number. Along with this newsletter will be a sheet with the exhibitor numbers of those that have shown their dahlias in the past. If you do not have an exhibitor number, please notify me and I will give you one. I need to know the number so that someone else won't be using the number already. The Show Schedule will follow if it isn't with the newsletter already. Last minute fixes are being made.

How are your dahlias holding up during this heat? JoAnna and I are just watching our buds turn to flowers and then over done blooms in a matter of hours. We have no idea what we will have for the San Francisco Show this weekend. Please attend this show if you can. Each show can use as many clerks and judges and possible and if we help a sister society, they will help us as well. When we get very hot weather, the spider mites tend to come out. They will attach themselves to a plant that is doing poorly and suck the life out of the leaves and stems. If you see a plant that doesn't look well, check the leaves and you will probably see that they are curled and on the bottom side will have a rusty color. With a magnifying glass, you will be able to see the red spider mites going up and down on their webs doing much damage to your plants. We haven't had issues with them the last couple of years but have seen some this year. We haven't seen too many cucumber beetles, or diabtroticas. It may be just too hot for them. These are the bugs that look like lady bugs but are green.

Hope to see you at the San Francisco show and at our next meeting, Tuesday, August 20th at our new time, 6:30.

Good growing, John
